

+ 2020-2021 MBSEF Education Resource Book

Dear Parents and Student Athlete:

Welcome to the MBSEF Full Time program. Being a full time athlete at MBSEF is different than being an athlete in our regular Winter Term or Competition programs. Not only are the responsibilities increased with respect to training and development, but there are certain expectations required in the class room as well.

The MBSEF Education Resource Book is a tool created by the education committee of the Board of Directors. Its purpose is to provide a working document to help parents and athletes navigate the education challenges that can occur for Full Time student athletes. It is the compilation of several months of committee work, interviews and information gathering. And it is intended to be a resource that will change and be updated on an ongoing basis.

The MBSEF Vision is to positively impact the life of every athlete we serve. Our Mission is to create opportunities through competitive snow sport programs to support athletes in achieving their individual athletic, academic, and personal goals. Our Values are contained in the acronym C.H.A.S.E. and stand for: Commitment; Honesty; Accountability; Sportsmanship; and Excellence.

MBSEF has created a structure to help you become the best athlete possible. Please use this Resource Book and the knowledge of the coaching staff to help you achieve your academic and athletic goals. If you have any questions regarding the Resource Book, please contact Coggin Hill at chill@mbsef.org or 541-610-2556.

Best Regards,

John Schiemer

Executive Director

MBSEF Vision, Mission, Values

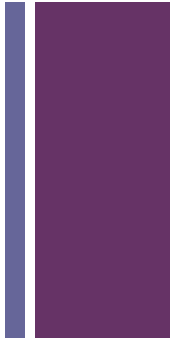

- MBSEF Vision: To positively impact the life of every athlete we serve.
- MBSEF Mission: The Mt. Bachelor Sports Education Foundation is a nonprofit organization that creates opportunities through competitive snow sports programs to support athletes in achieving their individual athletic, academic, and personal goals.
- MBSEF Values: Commitment; Honesty; Accountability; Sportsmanship; Excellence.

Expectations of MBSEF Athletes as Students

- Participation in the MBSEF Full Time program has significant expectations and accountability for students to create a successful partnership with their counselor, Principal and teachers. The idea is for the MBSEF student to take control, ownership and accountability in their academic and athletic pursuits.
- Managing this successfully will garner invaluable real-life experience that will carry over to future endeavors. The key to being a successful student athlete is consistent communication with all of the stakeholders.

+ Expectations of Students

- High School Counselors
 - Each School designates a Counselor for every student at the start of their Freshman year.
 - The Counselor can assist with classes and schedules in order to verify the NCAA standards are met
- Communication to Teachers
 - Students need to be responsible to keep an open line of communication with their teachers regarding:
 - Travel schedules
 - Assignment status
 - How to submit work while absent
 - Make up tests and/or quizzes

MBSEF Athletes Communication with Counselors

- A successful school/MBSEF relationship starts with your school counselor. It is essential to develop and maintain positive and consistent communication with your assigned counselor, as they will be your troubleshooter, your liaison and your advocate while planning the necessary class schedule to fit in with MBSEF training.
- Meet with your assigned counselor as early in the planning process as possible, even the prior Spring Term
- Get your counselor's email address and phone number
- Provide a preliminary race and training schedule for the season
 - The Schedules are available by August on the MBSEF website
- Discuss Absent Forms for extended periods of competition travel
- Establish plan for online and/or summer school options to offset missed on-site classes due to daily training schedule
- Meet regularly with counselor throughout the season to keep him/her abreast of your grades and relationship with your teachers

MBSEF Athletes Communication with Teachers

- The absolute key to success in the Full-Time program is to establish early and consistent communication throughout the training & competition season with each of your teachers. Taking “ownership” of your education and unique circumstances and conveying your goals to your teachers is important. The better the communication, the easier it will be for the teacher to put forth their expectations and help you plan for the academic year.
- Take the time to schedule a meeting with each of your teachers either prior to the start of the school year, or during the early part of the 1st Semester.
- Work with each teacher to develop a mutual agreed plan for assignments during absences.
- Establish a direct line of communication with each out your teachers; get their email addresses and phone numbers.
- Create a “presentation” of yourself and your goals with MBSEF (Why have you chosen to be in the Full-Time program?).
- The goal should be, whenever possible, to get the “buy-in” from your teachers on your athletic and academic pursuits; They should feel that they are an integral part of your success in both areas.
- Provide each of your teachers with a preliminary competition schedule that outlines the potential days missed from school; Establish a protocol with each teacher on their expectation leading into longer competition based absences and what is expected upon return to class.

+ Expectations of Parents

- Parents of student athletes in the MBSEF Full-Time program are expected to be fully engaged with their child's academic and athletic success. This includes assisting with and/or jointly meeting with the school Counselor and teachers during the initial stages of the school year. Parents should monitor the progress of their students closely throughout the school year with the goal of being proactive versus reactive to any issues that arise.
- Assist your student with meetings and communication with counselors and teachers as needed.
- Act as a liaison between your student athlete and counselor & teachers as needed.
- Support and empower your student athlete to take ownership of their "career".
- Please utilize our Parent Contacts as a resource if needed.

Communication with Parents

- Students and parents should set their own personal guidelines on what is expected during the academic year. Proactive communication between student athletes and their parents is vital to the success of each athlete. Parents need to be fully engaged with their athlete and set firm expectations on academic performance and accountability.
- Use ParentVUE or the other student record software at each school to regularly monitor academic expectations and performance of each student.
- Students should provide parents with weekly updates on academic performance, challenges, accomplishments, etc.
