Alpine race training at it's finest! Coached by long-time alpine coach Greg Timm, this program focuses on skill development, race tactics and preparation, and most of all, FUN! If you are an intermediate to expert skier looking to improve your skiing through a season-long training program, the MBSEF Alpine Masters Program will help you achieve your goals. Even if you do not intend to race, the skills acquired through this program will make you a stronger, more confident skier.

Program Dates and Times: Saturday, November 25, 2017 through Sunday, April 22, 2018. Tuesday, Thursday Friday, and Sunday, 9:00am to noon. Wednesdays noon-3:00pm. Saturday mornings added mid-March. No training December 19 through January 1.

Fast Fun Training Runs: Scheduled throughout the season. Included in the price of Full Time Program option. We appreciate any help you can give in setting up, maintenance, and tear down in these events. Without your help, these events can't happen!

Thursday Evening Video: Depending upon interest, training video will be provided Thursday evenings. Help your progression by watching training video, discuss technique, while enjoying a beverage and food. More details provided in the Fall.

May Extended Season Sessions: The extended season sessions in May will be held mid-May through closing of Mt. Bachelor, typically Memorial Day weekend. The extended season sessions are not included in the regular season training program. The cost is $250 for five additional days, and registration will be through the MBSEF office in late April and May.
