

2023-2024 Freeride Big Mountain Team

The Big Mountain Team refines technique and uses the whole mountain as its playground. The focus of this program is to develop the skills needed to ski all that Mt. Bachelor has to offer while having fun and learning about the alpine environment. Athletes will be expected to compete in big mountain competition in the PNW IFSA Region during the season.

Athletes must be able to ski comfortably on the entire mountain, in varied conditions and be comfortable skiing in the Woodward Terrain Parks. Skiing assessments are mandatory with the head coach to confirm placement within the program. Athletes who do not make the skills check may be placed in other programs on a case by case basis. This program is limited to the first 14 athletes who make the skills check.

Big Mountain Competition Team athletes will begin training in late November (conditions permitting). They will train on snow Wed afternoons, all day Sat/Sun and Winter and Spring camps until the end of March on Mt. Bachelor. Evening trampoline training (optional) will be announced when the program starts.
